Now I'm lookin' right here, inside myself
I've got my eyes closed
I'm looking backward through my brain
Thinkin' about what I'm thinkin' about
Wonderin' if there is an insane
Talkin' about a whisper
Whisperin' in my mind
Talkin' about forever
Beyond illusions of time
Talkin' about forever and ever and ever
Beyond all illusions
Faith so hard is mine
And I was just a man's son
And I was any old one
Of a million million million
In the minds of all I see

Infinity, infinity

Noise has come to my ears
From some television

In the skies of mind
Televisions in the sky of blind
Television reruns and reruns and reruns
All the time
World is just in my lonesome
Child's mind, all the time
If you had no time
You'd have to be right now
The world's spinning around in space
Spinning around on my face
Take the place of a race
That's already been won
Things are in perfection
When you see
Things are in perfection
Soul to see
All is all and everything you
Could love or be
All is now and now is all
In my heart can you see
