Bello hold my hand, Bello make me feel right. Bello don't speak my language but he reads my body like a book. Make me a women Bello, you're teasing like I'm a girl. Get to know me Bello make my toes curl. I'm no girl anymore, I won't let you tell me that I'm not ready for you and to do what my mumma told me not to do and she warned me of you but Bello I crave you. We'll go running through the vineyards, breathing in Italian air, not the fire come keep me warm. Make me a women Bello, you're teasing like I'm a girl. Get to know me Bello make my toes curl. I'm no girl anymore, I won't let you tell me that I'm not ready for you and to do what my mumma told me not to do and she warned me of you but Bello I crave you. Make me a women Bello, you're teasing like I'm a girl. Get to know me Bello make my toes curl. I'm no girl anymore, I won't let you tell me that I'm not ready for you and to do what my mumma told me not to do and she warned me of you but Bello I crave you. Bello show me the way, keep me for the night. Read me like you said you would tonight.
