You, you, you, you. Our house still stands though your room is empty, our car still goes though you can't drive it. I thought I knew when you died the sun wouldn't even want to shine. With you gone who'll save my days, with you gone where's reason. I don't want to feel, I want to feel numb, I don't want to breath when you don't. You, you, you, you. My heart's still beating when yours wont, I saw the morning though you won't. This can't be right, I can't be here, without you what's left of me? I'll give you all my heart beats, I'll give you all my mornings. I don't want to feel, I want to feel numb, I don't want to breath when you don't. Taught me so much, changed the way I think, gave me so much trust, let me so far in. Gave me chances, no one else compares, I'll be better beside... You, you, you, you, you, you, you, you. I can't look at her because I see you, I'm angry because she never knew you. I take her to see you every day and we lay flowers on your grave. You were more than my friend, you were my oxygen. I don't want to feel, I want to feel numb. I don't want to breathe when you don't. You, you, you, you, you, you, you, you.
