Every nights the same,
Your cuddled up, and his memory still remains, yeah.
Hes, breaking hearts, and taking names,
Yours was last and it's a shame.

So -

Growup and be strong now,
Girl you gotta move on now, yeah,
Maybe someday you'll learn how, maybe you'll say
He's just a memory today.

You can hardly sleep he's on your mind,
And you try too hard to rewind, to see
Where you went wrong, well don't take long,
Cause it only gets better with time, yeah.

Growup and be strong now
Girl you gotta move on now yeah,
Maybe someday you'll learn how, maybe you'll say
He's just a memory today.

It's not like the sky is falling,
It's just, just a little heartbreak baby,
I know you wish it was him that was calling but,
We both know it's a mistake baby, a mistake baby.

Growup and be strong now
Girl you gotta move on now yeah,
Maybe someday you'll learn how, maybe you'll say
He's just a memory today. (x2)
