Born and raised in oklahoma the young man moved to tennessee

He started runnin with the devil chasin that honky tonkers dream

Well at some dive out on lifes highway headed southbound

She was sent from up above and her true love turned his world around

Chorus:

God bless angels and pray for outlaws

To find a new found love for their lost cause

Lord knows she loved him despite all his flaws

And he loved her cause she made him wanna be

A better man

No there werent no halo above her beautiful brown hair
No he never saw her wings he always knew that they were there

Lord she had this way of knowin when he needed her the most

It's like she had some kind of connection with the father son

And the holy ghost

Repeat chorus

Lord know it wasn't cold as hell

Like everybody thought it would be

Lord it was actually a beautiful july morning

When he and that preacher man came walkin

Up out of that tree

Repeat chorus

He loved her cause she made him wanna be

A better man

And he was
