VERSE 1:

The things you say you do, you don't do
In fact, it's just the opposite of all of the words that come from you
And sometimes I sit around waiting
You say you come but you never show
That's not the way you treat your woman

The promise you make, you don't keep Instead you go and to the very thing you know that hurts me
What I'm trying to get you to see
Is that your better half has needs
You don't have to say a word to me

CHORUS:

Baby just show me you love me
And you won't have to say a word
Just show me you love me
And you won't have to say a word
I don't wanna let you go
Breaking up would be absurd
If you just show me you love me
Then you don't have to say a word

VERSE 2:

Like sometimes you say you're right, but you be wrong
And still I take the blame, took all my pain
Cause I don't wanna argue all night long

Oh I toss and turn through the night
The morning comes and you are still not by my side
That's not the way you treat your woman

You said that you would be faithful, I can't tell
In fact you show me things that let me know
That your heart is somewhere else
What I'm trying to get you to see
You don't have to say a word to me

CHORUS

Baby just show me you love me
And you won't have to say a word
Just show me you love me
And you won't have to say a word
Word, word, word you won't have to say a Word, word, you won't have to say a word
No baby, you won't have to say a word

You don't have to say a word, no no
Word no

(Ad Lib)

Just show me you love me
You won't have to say a word
Hey, just show me that you love me
Sometimes you have to show me
Hey she said, all you got to do is Pick up the phone and call me sometimes
She said, take me to the club with you sometimes
Can you take me out to dinner with you sometimes?
Send me a bouquet of flowers sometimes?
She said get up off your lazy ass and go to work sometimes
Stop hanging out with your boys and stay in with me
sometimes
I'm your woman, act like it sometimes
All I ask is that you take care of business sometimes Can you take care of the trash for me sometimes?
Can you get in the kitchen and wash the dishes
sometimes
