I'm love drunk baby,
Yeah, I'm solid gone, gone, gone.
A little too much maybe
That don't mean it's wrong.

I'm shamelessly wasted.
Never been this high, high, high.
Never have I tasted
A sweeter way to die.

Tonight it's a lover's right to live and lose control
So why would we fight this chance
To dance here soul to soul.

So tell me all your secrets
Maybe I'll show you mine, mine, mine.
Think of me like your cigarettes.
Crave me from time to time.

Tonight it's a lover's right to live and lose control
So why would we fight this chance
To dance here soul to soul.
Tonight it's a lover's right to live and lose control
So why would we fight this chance
To dance here soul to soul.

I don't wanna come down from this place
That I have found, (soul to soul)

Soul to soul, (soul to soul)
[repeat until fade]
