Take what you need
Insatiable world
You'll never bleed on my colors for me
Rage in your words scream out in fear
They just get lost in the cold night sky

And oh you could break all my summer sunshine
Throw me your waves
Let me drown my eyes in the tears that you've cried

I hold you in my arms
But you can't feel this warm embrace
You can't see the steady love from everyone
That's all around
But never enough
That's the story of us
That's the story of us

Salt of the earth,
Is all in your heart,
You gamble your trust
And it always burns you
One misplaced word
Walking on shells
The girl with the curl is rucking my shoe
You don't know what you've got
But you feel what it's not
And I wonder what you find
Your comforting pain
You could ride out the storm
Make weather change

I hold you in my arms
But you can't feel this warm embrace
You can't see the steady love from everyone
That's all around
But never enough
That's the story of us

I hold you in my arms
But you can't feel this warm embrace

You can't see the steady love from everyone
That's all around
But never enough
That's the story of us
That's the story of us
That's the story of us
That's the story of us
