I've been watching you
And if I'm not mistaking
I've seen that something in your eyes
We all take our chances
In the games we play
We always walk a thin, thin line
But I'll keep playing the perfect loser
Coz' when I lose I win
Did you think I was blind
Standing there like a stone
When you "tilted" my heart
Just like "pinball"
When you show me that smile
The feeling begins
But when you wrap your arms around me
GAME OVER YOU WIN
Anything can happen
Playing hard to get
The winner doesn't take it all
I could keep on fighting
Just like all the rest
Never ever take a fall
But I'll keep playing the perfect loser
Coz' when I lose I win
When you wrap your arms around me
