Visit "Enchanted" on MotoLyrics.com

I was in a glass case when I first heard you
Hidden in good things when you enchanted me
I was in a glass case when I first saw you
Covered in old thoughts when you enchanted me

Now I cannot smile enough
I cannot live enough
I long for your touch
I yearn for your love

I laughed when you told me how you have loved me
Donning a lover's smile while you enchanted me
I cried when you told me how you have loved me
Holding out trembling hands while you enchanted me

Now I cannot smile enough
I cannot live enough
I long for your touch
I yearn for your love
And I cannot breathe enough
I cannot break enough
I long for your touch
I yearn for your love

I cannot smile
Cannot live
Cannot breathe
Cannot break
Cannot dance
Cannot sing
Cannot laugh
Cannot say enough
I yearn for your love

I was in a glass case when I first heard you
