

Chasing Furies "I Would Drown"

Visit "I Would Drown" on MotoLyrics.com

I've sat and watched the autumn rain
As it filled the rivers up again
I heard your gentle voice begin to sing
"I love you"

Oh I, I need your healing touch upon my head
I need your bread
And I would jump into your river
I would drown to be alive in you

I've sat and watched the autumn rain
AS it filled the rivers up again
I heard your gentle voice begin to sing
"I love you"

You haven't changed since I'd been gone
These desert days, they seem to last so long
Fall on my face, begin to scream
That I need you
