Soon one morning,
Death comes creeping through the room.
Soon one morning,
Death comes creeping through the room.

You can call on your mother,
Your mother can't do you no good.
Yeah you can call on your mother,
Your mother can't do you no good.

Soon one morning,
Death comes creeping through the room.
Soon one morning,
Death comes creeping through the room.
So hush, hush,
Someone is calling my name.
Mhmm hush, hush,
Somebody is calling my name.

Soon one morning,
Someone will call my name,
Crying oh my Lord,
Oh my Lord.
What shall I do?
What shall I do?
