Verse 1

Well best friend, moving day
Can't find the words to say that I'll miss you
Yeah I'll miss you
And while I'm glad that we started, I'm sad that we've parted
After all these years
We were hanging out at the halls of the high school
Wondering where our lives would go
We went out and made snow angels
In the freshly fallen snow

Chorus

And I said don't forget to call me
Once in a while please think of me
And if you're feeling down and out
Oh, just call me and I'll be there

Verse 2

Well it was late at night, and your mom thought that we got in a fight
It was only pink gladioli

Sarah McLaughlin all night long
You know that shit drove me crazy
You said you had some Robbie Williams to play me
Blair what have you done?
You went from listening to bands like ours
And now you're boy band fan number one

Chorus

Bridge

We were searching for the meaning of life
And we found each other
We were searching for the meaning of life
And we found each other along the way

Solo

Verse 3

Well best friend, moving day
Can't find the words to say that I'll miss you
Yeah I'll miss you
And while I'm glad that we started,
I'm sad that we've parted
After all these years
We were hanging out at the halls of the high school
Wondering where our lives would go
We went out and made snow angels
In the freshly fallen snow

Chorus

And I'll be there
I'll be there

Chorus
