This songs about you and me and all the things that we could be

This songs about me and you and all the things that we could do

I just want to know you,
I just want to hold you tight
I just want to kiss you baby Keep you here with me tonight

could be

could do

I wish I could paint a picture of how beautiful you are to me
But no artist in the world could ever capture you beauty

I want to hold you so tight , want to make love tonight
Want you to tell me everything's all right
I want to hold you so tight , want to make love tonight
Want you to tell me everything's all right

Want you know my love if for real
