Words and music by rick nielsen and robin zander

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

I gave you just about the best years of my life

I might be lax on my views of the world

I can't explain the politics of your affairs

But there is one thing that I know and say each day

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

Life ain't so easy

I know you've heard it all before

When you stop movin'

There's always something more

Closed up in front of you

And closin' up in back

Don't you stop givin' up

When now you should attack, attack

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

Don't have a clue to know what's going on

You say you need some time to live alone

Tell me you're sorry so you say

I don't believe a single word you say

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

Oo la la la, oh oo la la la

(repeat to coda)
