Yesterday feels like running away
Feels like givin' the child
Gettin' lost losin' mind
I'm feelin' low
And I got no place to go
Gettin' all tied up
Feelin' all tied up, yeah yeah

Oh, yesterday feels like running away
And I know, I'm givin' up my time
To still love, still love's got me blind
My mind see the things I don't know
And I got no place to go
Gettin' all tied up
Feelin' all tied up, yeah

Right now, hah

Yesterday feels like running away
When I know, I'm givin' up my time
An' I'm, I just gettin' lost, I can't find my mind
See the things I don't know
And I got no place to go
Gettin' all tied up, feelin' all tied up
Oh yeah yeah, ohh

Things I need to tell you love
You'll be true, I know
There's still chance for a better life
Yes, I know
