Don't wanna see you again
You're takin' a little too much
Maybe it's my fault, okay
You've taken away too much

Swimmin' in sorrow all day
Well, fakin' it doesn't do much
Maybe you've fallen from grace
It's takin' a little too much

I couldn't be you, my friend
You're makin' a lie of your love
My love, come out now
You're takin' a little too much, too much

I, I swear, you had it all
Diamonds and pearls in time
You've taken all mine

Now, I couldn't be you my friend
You've taken a little too much
Don't wanna hold you again
Fall for the tricks in your touch

No one can charm like you can
You're makin' a lie of our love
My love, come on, come on
You're takin' a little too much, too much

You'll be there without a care
I'll go alone
I'll fall into life all over again

In time I will find a girl
Who knows just how to be kind
Some days the power's so bright
My love, I can't find no easy way out

I, I swear a lot, a voice tells me to stop
Something inside screamed out
To get my life back again

Don't wanna see you, my friend
You've taken a little too much
Maybe it's my fault, okay
You've taken away too much

I couldn't be you my friend
'Cause none of your riches mean much
I couldn't stand to pretend
You're makin' a lie of our love

My love, come on, come on
You're takin' a little too much, too much
La, la, la
La, la, la
La, la, la
