Transformers
Transformers
More than meets the eye
Transformers
Robots in disguise

There's, there's nothing you can do
They're coming from the sky above
There's no place you can hide
Strong, strong enough to break the strongest heart
We can not stay, we're worlds apart
Divided we will fall

Go Autobots

Transformers
Transformers
Transformers
More than meets the eye

Until, until our darkest hour
The light will save us all
Till the day when we have won
Its one day
Now we've made our stand
Patrol the darkness from our land
The battle's over but the war has just begun

Destroy all Decepticons
