You were so bitter for so very long
I was young and refused to be wrong.
And in the end we couldn't save what we both helped to make
And maybe I've made some mistakes.
Maybe I've witnessed the way a heart breaks,
And maybe i should've done things differently
But I didn't and we parted ways.
Who's to say things aren't better this way?

I swear that I'm sorry that I couldn't be
The hero that you wanted from me.
And in the end we couldn't fix what we both helped to break. And maybe I've made some mistakes.
And maybe I've witnessed the way a heart breaks.
And maybe i should've done things differently
But I didn't and we parted ways
who's to say things aren't better this way?
