Ready! Let's go! Woo!
Right! Cheetah! Uh huh, uh huh! Yea!
Come on y'all! Come on!
Everybody get up! Woo!
Here we go!

Start the party up, hit the groove
Celebrate is what we're here to do
Crank the music, now's the time
All of us are here tonight

Something new with movin' on
We've been thinkin' 'bout it all year long
Got the right moves, Cheetah Girls
Here we go, gonna rock the world

Party 'cause you know the future's all yours
Dance 'til your feet don't touch the floor
Celebrate the day you've waited for
Party like you're ready for so much more

Do it like you know it's never been done
Go a little crazy, have too much fun
Today's the day, come on everyone
The party's just begun

Are you feelin' this?
Put your hands up if you feelin' this!
I'm feelin' it girl! Ha ha!
Are you feelin' this?

Everybody get up!
Here we go!

Everybody now, make some noise
All the girls and all of the boys
Don't you know we got it going on?
All together we belong

Fun to be on, that's the truth
Lookin' good with a new attitude
Turn the party out, time to shine

Cheetah style, we're doin' it right

Party 'cause you know the future's all yours
Dance 'til your feet don't touch the floor
Celebrate the day you've waited for
Party like you're ready for so much more

Do it like you know it's never been done
Go a little crazy, have too much fun
Today's the day, come on everyone
The party's just begun

Come on!

We can do anything, everything we wanna
Finally we get the chance

Everybody wanna celebrate
Let the party never end
Ready for the summer holiday
Anticipate what's ahead

Now we're better than we've ever been
And you know we do it right
A cappella now bring it in
Come on girls, one more time

Chillin' out, break it down
That's the way we do it now
Attitude in the groove
Gettin' into something new

Say goodbye to yesterday
Future lookin' good to me
All together raise your hands
Time to party, time to dance

Come on! Girls
Come on!

Party 'cause you know the future's all yours
Dance 'til your feet don't touch the floor
Celebrate the day you've waited for
Party like you're ready for so much more

Do it like you know it's never been done
Go a little crazy, have too much fun
Today's the day, come on everyone
The party's just begun

Party 'cause you know the future's all yours

Dance 'til your feet don't touch the floor
Celebrate the day you've waited for
Party like you're ready for so much more

Do it like you know it's never been done
Go a little crazy, have too much fun
Today's the day, come on everyone
The party's just begun
