I'm all out of ideas
I don't know what to do next
It's all been done before
So why don't I just follow them
I'm all out of ideas
I don't know what to say
It's all the same old story
Just getting by day by day

It's all the same as when I left it
Nothing has changed a bit
It's just how I remember it
But my minds on a blank

I'm all out of ideas
I'm sick of my everyday routine
And everything else
That gets in the way of this scene
I'm all out of my mind
And tired of stopping to think about
Every single little lie
And every single broken vow

It's all the same as when I left it
Nothing has changed a bit
It's just how I remember it
But my minds on a blank
It's never been different
Not something to change
It's not something to forget
But my minds on a blank

I'm all out of ideas (yeah!)
No new innovations here
I'm all out of ideas (yeah!)
So you might as well leave me hereâ€¦
I'm all out of ideas(yeah!)
I'm sick of my everyday routine
And everything else(yeah!)
That gets in the way of this scene
I'm all out of ideas (yeah!)

No new innovations here
I'm all out of ideas (yeah!)
So you might as well leave me hereâ€¦
I'm all out of ideas(yeah!)
I'm sick of my everyday routine
And everything else(yeah!)
That gets in the way of this scene
I'm all out of ideas
I'm all out of ideas
I'm all out of ideas
I'm - all - out - of - ideasâ€¦.
