two days until closing
i cant wait to feel the pressure im already caught between power and disaster
and can we really try to go can we bring it back or is this the end of life

no i cant exept my fate
this is not the end
its my choice
to be who i am
you cant make me change
for some stupid game
that ive already lost
ive already lost

now its the last hour of the day and i still cant get some sleep and the dark is all around me but its taking everything i hoped to keep and im not just talking about something i dont know its my life and i only have one day

no i cant exept my fate
this is not the end
its my choice
for some stupid game
that ive already lost

now look around you
everyone seems too tired to care now look inside you
isnt this life just so unfair and im tired
of facing the truth and im sick of trying to make things go smooth and i will fight till

the very end
and ill die till
my needs are fed

no i cant exept my fate
this is not the end
to be who i am
