if you only had one day to live how would you spend your last few minutes and wouldnt it just be real fun if we never had to finish this last minute

never to end
never to come again
so can you just leave like that
and act like you dont care this isnt fair
you cant just leave like that if you only had one life to live would you take back all the times you screwed up and didnt know it you thought it was just a game (just a lie)

and who threw you on the ground not to help you up it wasnt me i never took offence

now can you can you fix all you have lost well youve got nothing no reason to prove it and this is my favorite part to watch them as they fall if you had one chance had one chance what would you do

would you want it to

no
