kill this season because its the reason that i cannot think these thoughts in my mind its a death trap waiting for me and pulling me close to hold me together would be a waste of hope because i am no one and nothing but an undefined something that keeps hangin around im just hangin around Im the truth behind a lie that is buried in your mind and your sick of me getting in your way it happens every day

kill this year for everyone here because they know they want to sink their lips in it just as bad as me but they dont know what it does to you can ruin your whole life

im just hangin around
it happens every day

i scream for mercy from the ones who break the hum and bring down what we made it hurts like hell were not saved were just getting farther like a disowning father i cant grab the answer we just keep going faster

im just hangin around
it happens every day

every day

everyday...
