I met a girl, she's wicked fly
Has short brown hair and purple eyes.
She's kinda short, but it's alright
Talked and laughed for that whole night.
She lured me in with her gorgeous smile
Held her hand and danced a while.
She's everything I'm dreaming of-
Could Scottie Wags be falling in love?

I can't believe this girl I met
The coolest chick that I know yet
She seems like the perfect prize
Oh my god, those purple eyes!
I let her know just how I felt
How she's making my heart melt
Then her face turned really red
Rejection running through my head
But what she did to me next
Was something I did not expect
She took my hand, she kissed me too
Then she said "I like you too"

I can't believe this girl I met
The coolest chick that I know yet
She seems like the perfect prize
Oh my god, those purple eyes!
