It's getting cold, my hands are numb and I cannot feel a thing I'm growing callous to this place the resolution strikes again and I don't know what to say but I've got to move on I'm beginning to see that everything I want is fake and what I have is real I swore I would look no further than this but somehow I found a way waiting for this season to end this trial burns me from within we could be so much more than we are but where do we look before we fall?

Im trying so hard to succeed but all i can do is breathe my emotion runs dry no time to waste, no minute more its time for this business to end because I've got to move on I'm beginning to see

and dont look down (don't look down) and don't look back we're leaving our shadows and we're leaving the past dont look down, dont look back we'll rise again, we'll rise again
dont look down, dont look back

but where do we look before we fall?

the only way I look is up
