Every day has been misleading
Searching fo something weÂ´ll probably never get
And even so, we kept on digging
Hoping this road will take us to the place
IÂ´ve seen in my dreams
And to the place IÂ´ve watched out through the crowd
I have to get there

IÂ´m all alone facing my worst fears
Taking small steps backwards
Careful not to slip
With nowhere else to run
I hide my brains behind the smoke

IÂ´ve seen it clear your soul is bleeding
You intend not to show
But your once shining eyes
Now theyÂ´re screaming
You need to focus take it easy
Inhale exhale
Close your eyes and soon you will be there
I have to get there
