More I don't know how to
More I'd die without you
More and I'd stop the world turning
I'd stop the sun burning
But I can't love you more

More is there more than a lifetime
More count the stars in the night time
More I'm already your slave love
Yes, that's what I gave love
And I can't love you more

Every breath that I take
My first thought when I wake
Every song that I hear
How I feel when you're near?

How I feel by your side?
How I'm glad, I'm alive?
Whether winter or spring
Doesn't mean anything?

How my home's anywhere
Knowing that I know you care
And how nothing I see
Beyond you and me?

More I don't know how to
More I'd die without you
More and I would stop the world turning
I'd stop the sun burning
But I can't love you more
