"Song Called Children"

Children playing in a park with a ball, teddy bears, and dolls if you watch them Very close then you see there's a love for all dancing through the light music Only they can hear they can close their eyes knowing there's nothing to fear
They can't see a thing whistle through the trees cos' they are still children
Now their time has come and gone they are grown all to soon it seems children In their land and dreams dancing through the light music that only they can Hear they can close their eyes and know there's nothing to fear I wish that Time stood still so they would never feel the pain of not being children I wish That time stood still so they would never feel I wish that time stood still
