I tremble down if your love Crumbles down for my love The pressure's down when your love Lifts me up to the moon like a dove

When your feelings get put to the ground You can do the left foot stepdown Do yourself some right

If you're being held back with the crowd You can do the left foot stepdown Do yourself some right

The word is love when your life Needs to be full of light And when the sun meets the night Prepare yourself for the world and the fight

Now you found out your sound Don't be too proud to turn around Don't let it pass, it's here to last Raise it up like a flag on the mast
