Im getting dizzy here
running in circles
holding onto your coat tails cupids been busy shooting his arrows
while i follow the love trail they led me straight to you and all i had to do
was look in my tracks
and double back i turn around and look what i found

all this time ive been running in circles you were right behind
i guess i could've met you in the middle
how come it never crossed my mind?

humming birds around my head
humming birds around my head
i ran into your arms
wound up dizzy instead
now i got butterflies, blue jays pretty things in the air out there ever since i found this, been

hes so tricky yeah
coming full circle
i always knew how to get there and he was so picky that he took his eye off the sparrow flew out after the nightingale and heaven for a while he took them fast and lost his style (?)
circled his tracks
double back turned around and look what you found

you've been right behind

i got tiny little bee stings on my heart where the love blooms honey can i only be with you?
Sitting underneath the shade tree in the park where i first met you Funny how the light can change your view

Oh

humming birds
humming birds
so dizzy instead butterflies, blue jays
oh in the air out there ever since i felt there's been
humming birds around my head
