I keep tellin' myself this is the right thing to do I was wastin' her time, waitin' on dreams that just weren't comin' true
And this old highway seems to understand Leadin' me on to somewhere that no one knows my name
I got the window rolled down, I got the radio up I'm doin' all that I can to get my mind off us

What I need to do is turn this car around Drive as fast as I can 'til I see the lights of our hometown
And run to her, take her in my arms
Make her see how sorry I am, well that shouldn't be so hard
But I drive on, and on, and on

Eighty-seven more miles gets me into Baton Rouge There's a buddy of mine who says he might find some work that I can do
Or maybe head up north to Knoxville, Tennessee
I know my baby sister, has got a couch where I can sleep
Now the sun's goin' down on my broken heart Lord, I gotta get back before I get too far

What I need to do is turn this car around Drive as fast as I can 'til I see the lights of our
hometown
And run to her, take her in my arms
hard
But I drive on Yes I drive on, and on, and on

Knowin' what I need to do
Girl, I'm comin' home to you

Knowin' what I need to do
Girl I'm comin' home to you
I'm comin' home to you Knowin' what I need to do
