Yeah, Red Zone, ugh, ugh, uh, uh

(Now the love is gone and you)
Don't stop, don't stop, come on
We could rock this party till the break of dawn
(Now the love is gone and you)
Don't stop, don't stop, come on
We could rock this party till the break of dawn

(Now the love is gone and you)
Don't stop, don't stop, come on
We could rock this party till the break of dawn
(Now the love is gone and you)
Don't stop, don't stop, come on
We could rock this party till the break of dawn

I don't really know why you playin' me
Gave you all of me and sometimes even more
I just wanna know why your love ain't real
Boy, you did me wrong, let me show you how it dealed

Now the love is gone and you left me all alone
You told me that you wouldn't ever let me down
I told you once before and now I'll tell you once again
Everything you do comes back around

Now the love is gone and you left me all alone
You told me that you wouldn't ever let me down
I told you once before and now I'll tell you once again
Everything you do comes back around

Now the thrill is gone
Don't want you back no more
So why you callin' me
My heart is out of reach

Now I'm movin' on
My pain didn't last for long
All you put me through
Will come back to you

Now the love is gone and you left me all alone

You told me that you wouldn't ever let me down
I told you once before and now I'll tell you once again
Everything you do comes back around

Now the love is gone and you left me all alone
You told me that you wouldn't ever let me down
I told you once before and now I'll tell you once again
Everything you do comes back around

Now the love is gone and you left me all alone
You told me that you wouldn't ever let me down
I told you once before and now I'll tell you once again
Everything you do comes back around

Now the love is gone and you left me all alone
You told me that you wouldn't ever let me down
I told you once before and now I'll tell you once again
Everything you do comes back around

I'ma come to you town and throw me a party
And have everybody singin' ooh laddi daddi
It just won't stop and it just won't quit
I'ma bring these girls, 'cause you know that their lit

Ugh, I got my truck and I got my bumps
And I got the fly system and you know where it pumps
I like them honeys with the fly skin tone
And when you know it on then it's on wit' the Redzone

Now the love is gone and you left me all alone
You told me that you wouldn't ever let me down
I told you once before and now I'll tell you once again
Everything you do comes back around

Now the love is gone and you left me all alone
You told me that you wouldn't ever let me down
I told you once before and now I'll tell you once again
Everything you do comes back around

It comes, baby
(It goes around and around)
It goes, baby
(It comes back around)
It comes, baby
(It goes around and around)
Always goes back around

It comes, baby
(It goes around and around)
It goes, baby
(It comes back around)

It comes, baby
(It goes around and around)
Always goes
