[music & words: Tuomas Saukkonen/Panu Willman]

Feast my eyes with grief and pain or I will lose my strength to go on Loud is the sound I hear inside and through the walls that hide the cries

With cruel words able to paralyze Tear in pieces the structure of your pride
Into you I bring all pain Defenceless, senses unable to testify the damage done
Into you I bring all pain

Calm before all hell or so I feel, today as I seem weak outside,
It is my truth which you can't find and I enjoy to live a lie

You I cannot save, prevent your destruction Unable to give protection from myself
The antichrist in shape of angel Guiding through the dark

Stay a while to show how I can change in seconds Proving you were wrong
