Be brave Reshape Can't force all into molds Passing out schematics Forcing all into molds Once more about to change Some try and fall beneath Molds

Well it's your right so I'll keep on this path Turning around Bending the shape Cutting it in We could excel beyond The latter fools Start a new tone Hating the same Empty the room

So create Reclaim Sovereign shapes tempting us Ration out, their schematics Dare we live without molds So far what's left between They try and fail beneath molds

Well it's your right so I'll keep on this path Turning around Bending the shape Cutting it in We could excel beyond The latter fools Start a new tone Hating the same Empty the room

Feel locked in a room And starting to choke Enticing the shame

Awaken a world

Well it's your right so I'll keep on this path Turning around Bending the shape Cutting it in We could excel beyond The latter fools Start a new tone Hating the same Empty the room

So be brave Reshape So create Reclaim Be brave Shape Reshape So create Shape Reclaim
