I paid you, squeaky wheel
Go try healing this too
That said, you're full of it
On a bend, Beg to fail
Properly holding your grudge
That said, you're full of shit.

Try accepting this
Why not face today
Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within

Why not face today
Forever want to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within

Last burned, well grab a pen
For the fourth and unknown
Hated work, but love a scene
The somber came juxtaposed
All the subtleness of, a downed plane
Defeat again.

Try accepting this
Why not face today
Forever want to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within

Why not face today
Forever want to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within

If only the crying could heal
I'd sell my left arm to buy passion
If only apologies worked
I could find some reasons
Why maybe you wouldn't be
So ill, so ill, sorry your souls

So fucking shallow
It's creeping outside, outside of it's hole
It's trying to see, say it
Fake this reality

Why not face today
Forever want to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within

Why not face today
Forever want to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within

What I face today
What I face today
What I face

What I face today
What I face today
What I face today
What I face today
