"Ruse"

Sell me some love
Led by a ruse
Set up like a lens
That looks into rooms
Sees colors
Cast in a world
This roundabout path
Makes two rights and two wrongs
Till it hurts find me

Let's discover your emotions
We'll visualize that fevered side we lost

It's way too hard to pin us
Hard to pin us down
If you haven't felt that fire in a while
And its now-or-never lies
Just live a little more
Try climbing over any
Unfortunate you say
Never in this setting
Young freedom has its price and
We all bend these rules
So nervously

Let's discover your emotions
We'll visualize that fevered side we lost
Are we blinding those emotions
Will you decide defeat or find it all

Let's discover your emotions
We'll visualize that fevered side we lost
Are we blinding those emotions
Will you decide defeat or find it all

Set it free
