To return to the cold
It isn't much fun
To touch the trees no one has known
Go rest your head
Cause you can't miss this

Poor boy became
A slave to use
Now despair moves in so close
Too many years free at last
He didn't know so learned to speak
He clears his throat
Cause you can't miss this

[Chorus]

Poor boy became
A slave to use

Rebuild what's left
Of this child, so weak
Sorry, changes, trample the plan
Death, stores, victims
Once more

[x4]

Keep on burnin' through the noose

Keep on...

[Chorus]

Poor boy became
A slave to use
Of this child, so weak

To return, to the cold
It isn't much, but I'm free at last
