Feed the cut and get in line
To live and burn is tug-o-war

Raped

Go back and forth until it's learned
To suffer now or nothing's gained
Then wake within a freezing sweat
Push and pull, collecting doubt

Starting seeds

Lost inspiration, panic on the rise
A severed attempt ignored

Raped

The reason never outweighs the truth
So backing up and lean against
The liars club cometh shame
Wasting farther collecting doubt

Starting seeds

Lost inspiration, panic on the rise
A severed attempt ignored

So hand it off, don't care enough
'Cause ignorance, is in blissful reach

Lost inspiration, panic on the rise
A severed attempt ignored

Lost inspiration, never played the game
A severed attempt ignored

Feed, the last head trip
