I used to look at life
Thru a shade of grey
'Til I found satisfaction in the things you say
You took me in your hands
And like a piece of clay
You made me so happy, now I'm proud to say
Hallelujah oh! Hallelujah, Lord, Hallelujah!
I'd wake up in the morning
An' I'd wanna cry
'Cause all my needed answers
Were just passing by
The feelin's gettin' stronger each and every day
An' now I feel so happy
I've just got to say
Hallelujah oh! Hallelujah,
Hallelujah, Lord, Hallelujah!
