Seagulls flying through my mind lazy by the sea floating in shades of blue 'till they're gone I turn all my thoughts of you to this song

Traces of heartache in the sand spilled along the bay they fade in the waves that roll and crumble but your name lays indeleble...

Sway sway sway along and lay down on my song of feathers may may may your eyes close and see us together

Memories crying to the sun helpless in the sea I'll be the girl you never knew one summer you'll be a song I'll have to sing forever
