"When The Train Comes Back"

You want me, you want me to be true
You want me, you want me to be true
You got twenty other women
You know another one wouldn't do

Bye bye baby, see you when the train gets back
Bye bye baby, see you when the train gets back
Well, I'm leaving you now
And the train is moving down the track

You saw me, you saw me to the train
You saw me, you saw me to the train
Well, I could hardly keep from cryin'
'Cause I knew I wouldn't see you again

Bye bye baby, bye bye baby, bye bye
I said bye bye baby, bye bye baby, bye bye
If I was your only woman
I'd love you till the day I die
