I saw it from the bedroom window
A large blue city rising over the hill
They came to my house, lounged around,
On the wood floor they lay, eating duck pat?
On the freshly renovated bathroom, using my towels checking
Splashing around, making new plans.

Last night they landed i wasn't on drugs
Last night they landed they were not thugs
Last night they landed they were checking us out
Last night they landed intruded my house
Last night they landed i want to see more
Last night they landed i opened the door
Last night they landed they were not green
Last night they landed appeared on the scene

Oh oh, my gosh, i was looking down the hall way and there were
These slimy foot prints and was going to get coffee and then i Slipped down the stairs and onto the streets and the roads, there Wasn't anything there
Not even any air and i just lay there,

Cause last night they landed they're taking me away,
Last night they landed and that's ok,

More like slackers from la

Last night they landed i wasn't on drugs
Last night they landed they were not thugs
Last night they landed they were checking us out
Last night they landed intruded my house
Last night they landed i want to see more

Last night they landed i opened the door
Last night they landed they were not green
Last night they landed appeared on the scene

They squeezed my cheese and bit my butt,
They're reading oyster mag backwards Hovercrafts are so way cool they ride them right across the pool

I think i'm in the 6th dimension, they all live so free without sexual Tension!
Large 4 thumbs, 6 small fingers, they're so stunning they don't need Any make-up, we're ping-ponging through these big black holes and on Rumpilicheons we sometimes hold, until we sway with chromolomlom
Sensation, appearing on a brother quasar hoping like Us... a brand new nation!

We're ping-ponging through those big black holes and
on rumpilicheons
We sometimes hold

We're ping-ponging through those big black holes and
on rumpilicheons
We sometimes hold

Last night they landed they came from afar
Last night they landed they stole my new bra
Last night they landed they broke my tv
Last night they landed consumed my lichee
Last night they landed i want to see more
Last night they landed i opened the door
Last night they landed they were not green
Last night they landed appeared on the scene
