Lost in a sea of memories
Learning to fly again
Morning comes early, oh
Trying to trust these wings

'Cause when I fall, I fall deep (ahh)
When I crawl, I'll come running to you babe
Running to you baby

Now I've gotta sort out these dreams
Feels like watching your life on a big screen
And morning comes early again, yeah
Only to find us two as one

When I fall, I fall deep (ahh)
When I crawl, I'll come running to you
Running to you baby
When I fall, I fall down deep
When I crawl, I'll come running to you
Running to you baby

Still falling in circles, oh yeah
I'm falling down on my knees

Once as a child in my mother's eyes
Oh Lord, I swear, felt this way, yeah

(Ahh)

When I fall, I fall deep, oh yeah (ahh)
When I crawl, I'll come running to you
Running to you baby
When I fall, Lord, I fall, I fall, I fall down
When I crawl, I'm running to you
Running to you baby, baby, baby

When I fall, I fall down deep
When I crawl, I'll come running
I'll come running, I'll come running back to you baby
