If you're earthbound
Grab my hand and you will see
We'll make you spellbound
A feeling of relief and you'll be free

The countless galaxies are swarming with life
A peaceful existence without strife
An existence without strife
Watching the dance of the stars
Falling in trance
My mind reels at the sight
We become paralysed, mesmerized
Hypnotized, analysing it all

Space always growing
Expanding, stretching
Beyond imaginations
But always within reach

The countless galaxies are swarming with life
A peaceful existence without strife

An existence without strife
Watching the dance of the stars
Falling in trance
My mind reels at the sight
We become paralysed, mesmerized
Hypnotized, analysing it all

It's a fascinating passage
Through space and time
At telepathic speeds
Without materialistic needs

The countless galaxies are swarming with life
A peaceful existence without strife
An existence without strife
Watching the dance of the stars
Falling in trance
My mind reels at the sight
We become paralysed, mesmerized
Hypnotized, analysing it all
