Never think that some things will change 'cause they never will
Always see the truth in thoughts that turn out to be true
Our hearts are made for loving
And we are made to feel
The pain will leave you as you die
Putting flowers on the floor
Find the key to my secret door
Kiss me now I want to be alive
Putting flowers on the floor
Find the key to my secret door
Kiss me now I want to be alive
Everything is silent and your life is but a mess

People waiting for a sign
There's nothing to confess
The heart is now for living
And feelings turn to stone
It's a crazy nightmare coming true Wish that the dreams haunting you would be gone and your life given back nothing more
Putting flowers on the floor
Find the key to my secret door
Kiss me now I want to be alive
Putting flowers on the floor
Find the key to my secret door
Kiss me now I want to be alive
