Another day
Another year
Will bring us through
Our love and fear
And we will grow strong
Together as one

A glimpse too long
Is all it takes
You've seen the glow
Your kingdom shakes
The loss of control
When mystery fades

The feelings remain
You have nothing to gain
The wiseman left you by yourself to deal with your shame

Another day
Another year
Will bring us through
Our love and fear
And we will grow strong
Together as one

A sleepy sun
The sparkling sky
Will bring us through
Another dream
And we will reclaim
Our moments of peace

The feelings remain
You have nothing to gain
The wiseman left you by yourself to deal with your
shame
