You're mine

You're mine

You're mine.....

Verse

Searching, for that something that I'll never find

In another place another time

Searching

For that something that I can believe

And without a doubt that I can see

Bridge

All the many roads I've travelled

None so far and none so much

It leads me back to you again

Verse

I'm searching

When I'm lost and need to find myself

Where this road will lead no one can tell

Searching

For that something that I've left behind

Make me see that I've been far too blind

repeat bridge

Coda

I've got a woman who loves me, baby. x 4 (ad lib)

Searching

For that something that I'll never find
