ANTICHRISTIAN PHENOMENON

Once again I show my respect and great admiration to Milton's poetry. There's also some inspiration I drew from W. Blake's tales. Both of them spoke of the most natural side of human's nature, using the magical language of poetry. Still its charm overwhelms me...

THE ACT OF REBELLION

"The act of rebellion" is very personal song...
Constantly we go up and down, once we are close to a gutter, another time we reach the skies and have a strong will to fight! This tune is strictly dedicated to myself and a certain person in my life that unleashed a storm... and left a bitter reflection that all in all we are alone, and there's nobody we can rely on apart from ourselves...

INFLAMED WITH RAGE

These words are hard as stone.
It's about the philosophy that made me who I am.
What we have to do in the first place is to understand ourselves is knowing and respecting our instincts. This anthem strives for victory and glory of our nature.
The struggle leaves behind everything that is weak and dead.

PAN SATYROS

First verses of this poem are derived from The Oracle of Albion, text which was received to me by means of automatic writing. The path of A'yin, or The Eye, is connected with XVth Atu of The Book of Thoth. Sages who use their wisdom adapted the symbols of Tree of Life use system called The Pathworking. The path of the Devil is one of the many necessary stages of great trip across the gardens of Etz Chajim. Since we have to accept every part of our being to become a living Star.
...in the fever of Pan...

NATURAL BORN PHILOSOPHER

I believe the title speaks for itself.
This song doesn't need long introduction...

This is my interpretation of Crowley's "Everyone Is A Star"

Theory, but I decided to push it as far as my observations go.

We all are born to reach a certain goal in life, we all have our talents and skills and it's only up to us if we have a will to caress and release our potential. But it seems like most of humans just loose it... So my extended version is "Everyone Is A Star... but most of them fall and reach the ground".

CHRISTIANS TO THE LIONS

Quoting Aleister Crowley's "Christians to the lions" I found the simplest and the strongest expression of my disgust towards everything that is stagnated, corrupted and weak "Christians to the lions" is not just a pure hate anthem. It's also a manifestation of vitality, freedom of wisdom... is a song about crossing boundaries, about trespassing our abilities and extending our minds.

INAUGURATION OF SCORPIO DOME

Inauguration of Scorpio Dome is inspired by Kenneth Anger's movie, Lucifer Rising. In its esoteric form, expresses the context of thelemic philosophy which has its source in formulae "Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law. Love is the law, love under will". It is invocation of the aspirations of our Holy Thelemic Temple. The last verses are derived from The Coming of Apollo (to Aleister Crowley) , by Victor B. Neuburg (1883-1940) , a mystic, poet and Crowley's magickal partner.

IN THE GARDEN OF DISPERSION

The Death Posture is a magical technique which is used to defeat so called The Guardian of the Threshold and to induce a state of consciousness which enables deeper exploration of our being. The posture and topic of this poem are connected with classical symbolism of sabbath and is utilized by magicians of left-handed, typhonian magickal current of Thelema.

THE UNIVERSE ILLUMINATION

"Nothing's true... everything's permitted! ". These are keywords to understanding what's this world based on. That's what I've learned myself, that life depends on individual interpretation. Our visions and illusions define our world and space...

WE ARE able to create ourselves, we are responsible ones, we are conscious of all!

VINVM SABBATI

This poem is an explication of Austin Osman Spare's magical formulae of Zos Kia Cultus and describes its practical application. The formula is correlated on qabalistic Tree of Life with sephira Yesod (The Foundation) . It was done under the bridges of London in winter of 2000 ev

23 (THE YOUTH MANIFESTO)

Well, it's been 23 years of a constant struggle in my life. I've been through many things, I've experienced a lot and I left it was high time for kind of retrospection. But still I keep in mind it's just the beginning of a "long journey" called life... My friend used to say that "the past is never as big as a future"
So with these mighty words I proudly march ahead, curious of all surprises to come...
