"Of Sephirotic Transformation And Carnality"

Madness creeps through arteries of Grand Cosmic
Body
Higher and lower, towards all directions
It violates old laws, repeals all orders
And seeks infinity in holy letters

Child in crown its guide - Ever Coming Son
But it rambles suspended between emanations of Increasing and Descending
Thousand paths across thousand spheres
Mind is torn apart by Macrocosmic Snowflake Death!

Prismatic trees grow from mad rites
The knowledge of geometry elevated to the dignity of living substance

The Fool in the Universe knows nothing as usual Transubstantiation of excrement and Styx waters is done!

Carnal alchemy
Sephirotic transformation
In new body god incarnates

Beyond duality, beyond understanding
Castrated man, bastard, secret chief is born
He builds the bridge of agreement -
- spectre of his fall
And he is devoured by the fire of the Abyss

This poem is inspired by idea of Frater Achad's Tree of Life and his infamous
The Anatomy of the Body of God.
